Imamate State of Oman 1972-1986 “Feigenbaum Period”

Brief History (con'd)

- When Sultan of Oman gained control of all of Oman in late 1971, Imamate State of Oman in Exile collapsed
 - Syria terminated arrangement with “Postal Counsellor” after June 1972, ending State of Oman postal operations
- Clive H. Feigenbaum, London, took over two well-established “brand names” - State of Oman and Dhufar – and continued issuing stamps in their names until 1986
 - Claimed he had a license from Youssef S. Tadros
 - After 1986 other stamp dealers created “new material” by overprinting their stocks of State of Oman and Dhufar stamps
 - This is still an ongoing process today
